Schedule A - Direct Contributions

This schedule is used for reporting all direct contributions. You must keep a record of all contributors, but for this report you may combine all contributions of $100 or less from individuals and the same from political parties and enter these sums as unitemized contributions on their respective lines below and on the next page. Any contribution of more than $100 or aggregate during a calendar year from an individual or political party and all contributions from PAC's must be entered as a separate item (itemized) giving the amount, name, address and place of employment (if applicable) of the contributor. Each type of contributor has their own section for itemization. This schedule may be duplicated if you need more space, or you may attach additional sheets of paper.

Dear election Dept.,

The $20 reported in my campaign account on 10-26-02 was my own money - or personal contribution to my campaign. As reported earlier, total donations to my campaign from supporters was $350.00.

~~I could have~~ - maybe should have entered $0 for a balance - but am filing the year-end report in the attempt to balance the ledger. Therefore I show the $20 as being spent on printing. If adjusting my 10-26 balance to $0 will clear up the books, please make that change if you are able. Other wise figure the $20 as possibly an unpaid ~~debt~~ debt - if you can - since printing costs and other expenditures for my campaign came out my own pocket - and were several thousand dollars more than my contributions were.

Sorry for the headache over this. Please be assured that I am trying to comply with state law concerning this matter - and that if I run again for office - I'll be better at preparing financial statements next time. ✓

Happy New Year ☺
